Historic humbling: England crushed India by a record 125 runs in the third T20I at Trent Bridge to move 2-0 up in the five-match series. Jofra Archer (3/29) and Nottinghamshire's Josh Tongue (4/28) ripped through the batting as India folded for just 76 in 11.4 overs, its second-lowest total in T20Is and biggest-ever defeat by margin in the format. Home dominance: England clinched its first-ever T20I series win over India as Harry Brook's sublime unbeaten knock eclipsed Shreyas Iyer's lone battle in Bristol. Chasing 159, Brook and Phil Salt stitched an unbroken 144-run stand to seal victory in just 13.5 overs, rendering Shreyas' unbeaten 80 off 49 balls in India's 158/7 a losing cause. AFP & REUTERS
