

» PHOTOLINE WOMEN'S T20 WORLD CUP

1st

Daring Dottin: Even before West Indies walked out to bat in the first semifinal, it suffered a major blow as star all-rounder Deandra Dottin was carried off the field by her teammates after sustaining an injury. But she returned to ease her side's concerns, walking out to bat with the Windies reeling at 83/6 and smashing an unbeaten 26 off 16 balls to lift the total to 125. AFP

2nd

Pulled away from the pack: Ashleigh Gardner starred with both bat and ball, claiming two wickets for just 13 runs before remaining unbeaten on 35 to steer her side to the target with a commanding seven overs to spare at The Oval. REUTERS