Run-fest begins: Devdutt Padikkal's commanding 167, the first 150-plus score by an Indian No. 3 since Cheteshwar Pujara's 193 at the SCG in 2019, set the tone in Galle. His 151-run second-wicket stand with K. L. Rahul, who made 82, laid the platform for India's imposing first-innings total. GETTY IMAGES

Silver lining: Sonal Dinusha's maiden Test hundred helped Sri Lanka recover from 90-5, but India retained the upper hand after the host was bowled out for 284. Dinusha's 100 off 168, including four fours and two sixes, formed the bedrock of a 146-run sixth-wicket stand with Niroshan Dickwella. AFP
