» GALLE TEST PHOTOLINE INDIA-SRI LANKA

Calculated assault: As the Galle pitch grew increasingly difficult to bat on, Rishabh Pant's attacking 66 off 69 gave India the decisive push in the second innings. When India was bowled out, it had stretched the lead to 371, leaving itself four sessions to dismiss Sri Lanka. PTI

Spin mastery: Manav Suthar spun India to a 165-run win in Galle with match figures of 10 for 131, the best by an Indian in a Test in Sri Lanka. His six wickets in the second innings included a triple-wicket over, underlining a performance that put India 1-0 up in the two-match series. PTI
