

FAHS - THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR A BRIGHT FUTURE IN HEALTHCARE

As the healthcare sector continues to expand rapidly across India and the world, the demand for skilled Allied Health professionals has never been greater. Standing at the forefront of healthcare education is the Faculty of Allied Health Sciences (FAHS), a constituent unit of Vinayaka Mission's Research Foundation (VMRF) – Deemed to be University, owing all credits to the Founder Chancellor Dr.A.Shanmugasundaram, has emerged as one of the country's leading institutions for Allied Health Sciences education. The strong guidance and support of Honorable Dr.A.S.Ganesan, Chancellor and Dr. Anuradha Ganesan, Vice President of VMRF-DU has helped the institution to grow continually and is celebrating 24 years of success.

Headed by the dynamic Founder Principal and current Dean Prof. Dr.B.Sendilkumar, With vibrant campuses in Salem, Chennai, and Puducherry, FAHS educates nearly 5,000 students every academic year, offering a dynamic learning environment that combines academic excellence with practical clinical training. The institution offers 25 undergraduate and 4 postgraduate programmes in Allied Health Sciences and Public Health, preparing graduates to meet the evolving needs of the healthcare industry.

What sets FAHS apart is its commitment to creating competent healthcare professionals who are not only academically strong but also industry-ready. The curriculum is enriched through industry-designed certification programmes, skill enhancement initiatives, and value-added courses, ensuring graduates possess the specialized competencies sought by employers. This strong industry integration has significantly enhanced the employability of FAHS students.

To provide hands-on learning experiences, the institution has established 12 advanced simulation laboratories that replicate real-life clinical settings. These facilities enable students to develop technical expertise, clinical confidence, and decision-making skills before entering professional practice. Regular exposure to international and national conferences, seminars, continuing medical education (CME) programmes, and workshops conducted by renowned experts further broadens students' academic and professional horizons.

FAHS has earned widespread recognition for its excellence in education, activities, earning accolades at intercollegiate and national-level competitions. The institution also nurtures socially responsible citizens through initiatives of the National Service Scheme (NSS), Red Ribbon Club (RRC), Youth Club, Fit India Club, and Environmental Sustainability Club. Together, these forums organize nearly 200 community outreach programmes, health camps, awareness campaigns, and social service activities every year, positively impacting thousands of lives.

Quality remains the hallmark of the institution. FAHS proudly became the first educational institution in India to receive the ISO 21001:2018 Educational Organizations Management System Certification from TÜV SÜD, accredited by the Quality Council of India (QCI), reaffirming its commitment to delivering globally benchmarked education.

With its student-centric approach, world-class infrastructure, experienced faculty, strong industry partnerships, and unwavering commitment to excellence, the Faculty of Allied Health Sciences continues to shape the next generation of healthcare professionals. For aspiring students seeking a rewarding career in healthcare, FAHS stands as the right choice for a bright future—where knowledge, skills, compassion, and leadership come together to transform lives and build healthier communities.

research, and innovation. The institution has received over 50 awards from National, International, and Government organizations and has been recognized with the Diamond Band with A+ Grade in Outcome-Based Education (OBE) Rankings. It is also ranked among the Top 100 Higher Education Institutions in India by the GU Rankings, London, and recognized as one of the Sustainable Institutions of India – Green Rankings 2023 by the R World Institutional Ranking.

Beyond academics, FAHS strongly believes in holistic student development. Students actively participate in sports and cultural

