

3rd

Silver linings: Virat Kohli had batted with ominous intent during his polished 65, but England turned the innings on its head. The host swept away India's last seven wickets for just 55 runs, bowling it out for 233 with six overs left unused. Shreyas Iyer's fighting 66 threatened to drag the innings back on course, but the recovery never came. Pics: AFP

4th

5th

Dropping anchor: England once again turned to Joe Root, and once again he delivered. The former captain's unbeaten 99 anchored a gritty chase of 234 in Cardiff as the host levelled the three-match ODI series. AFP