

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« This year it's been very strange with the testing in general. When I was home I was already waking up every day at 6:00 a.m. to go check the doorbell if somebody was ringing because I had so many visits. – Tour de France champion Tadej Pogacar regarding the doping control procedures »

« It's something I will remember for the rest of my life when I heard what had happened – and it wasn't directed at me. It was directed at my teammates. – England rugby captain Jamie George talking about the racial abuse his teammates faced from Argentinian spectators »

3:42.66

Scotland's Josh Kerr smashed one of athletics' longest-standing records by clocking 3:42.66 to win the men's mile at the London Diamond League, breaking

Morocco's Hicham El Guerrouj's world record of 3:43.13, set in Rome in 1999. The Olympic 1,500m silver medallist, who built his season around the milestone, eclipsed his previous personal best of 3:45.34 by nearly three seconds.

1609m

The Commonwealth Mile will make its long-awaited return to the Commonwealth Games in 2026 after a 60-year absence, replacing the traditional 1,500m event for both men and women. Run over the classic 1,609m distance, the race is expected to feature newly crowned men's mile world record holder Josh Kerr and women's world record holder Faith Kipyegon of Kenya. The revival honours the legendary 1954 'Miracle Mile' at the Vancouver Commonwealth Games.

DOMINANT SHOW

P. V. Sindhu defeated local favourite Akane Yamaguchi to clinch the Japan Open 2026 women's singles title. Sindhu dominated the match, winning in straight games in just 50 minutes to claim her first BWF Super 750 title. With the triumph, she became the first Indian to win the Japan Open. The victory also ended her two-year title drought, with her previous title coming at the 2022 Singapore Open Super 500. It extended Sindhu's head-to-head lead over three-time world champion Akane Yamaguchi to 16-14. Her last full-match victory over the Japanese player had come at the 2022 Thailand Open. AFF
