KITCHEN CONFIDENTIAL

From travelling chefs to tailored meals, Norway's World Cup prep showed why the smallest details often separate champions from contenders.

This is the way: Norway built a setup where flying its own kitchen across an ocean is treated as normal. For this 2026 FIFA World Cup, its national team flew three chefs and roughly one tonne (more than 1,000 kg) of food, including Norwegian salmon and trout, plus their beloved brown cheese. GETTY IMAGES
