

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« I just want to focus on running fast, winning some races. With this mentality, the world record will fall one day. I just don't know when. – Audrey Werro, the 800m track star, with a 43-year-old world record in her sights »

« From when I was a swimmer, let's say 10 years ago, the prize money has improved, but I think we can also do it better. I think we should support every athlete but also the breakthroughs. – Former Olympic champion Ranomi Kromowidjojo on improving financial support for swimmers »

12.09s

Olympic champion Masai Russell broke the world record in the women's 100m hurdles at the Zurich Diamond League meet. She pulled away over the final hurdle to finish in 12.09 seconds, crossing the previous mark of 12.12 set by Nigeria's Tobi Amusan in 2022. The 26-year-old American, whose previous best was 12.14s, dominated the race, with a fast start setting her out into the front from the first two hurdles. She will receive USD 80,000 for setting the new world record.

$10m

World No. 1 Scottie Scheffler created history after winning the Tour Championship in the finale of the FedEx Cup playoffs. With this victory, he became just the third individual behind Tiger Woods and Rory McIlroy to win multiple PGA Tour Championships. The American had won the title first in 2024. Scheffler also overtook Woods for the top spot on the PGA Tour's career money list. With the $10 million first prize, Scheffler now stands at the top with $130,390,661.

ON TOP OF CHINA

Chirag Shetty and Satwiksairaj Rankireddy claimed their 10th BWF World Tour title after defeating China's He Jiting and Ren Xiangyu at the China Masters 2026. The victory extended the Indian pair's head-to-head record against He and Ren to 3-0. Satwik-Chirag won 11-21, 21-13, 21-17 in a 70-minute thriller. AFP