England wrapped up another dominant victory over Pakistan on the fourth day at Lord's, sealing the Test series with a game to spare.

The visitor mounted a stubborn resistance through Saud Shakeel, who made 97, but England eventually bowled it out to complete a 194-run victory. Ollie Robinson was at the heart of England's success, taking 4-24 in the second innings to finish with match figures of 8-35. The result mirrored England's commanding innings victory in the opening Test at Headingley and gave Joe Root a series triumph in his second stint as captain.

It is also England's first Test series win since 2024.
