

5th

2022, The crown at last: Qatar was where the unfinished story finally found its ending. Messi scored twice in the final as Argentina drew 3-3 with France before triumphing on penalties, lifting the World Cup after years of near misses. The Golden Ball followed, but the image that mattered most was Messi, at last, holding football's ultimate prize. GETTY IMAGES