

5th

Old is gold: At 76-year-old, Australia's Louise Hoskins proved that age is no barrier for success when she became the oldest athlete to win a Commonwealth Games gold medal. Hoskins along with Serena Bonnell clinched the yellow metal in the para women's pairs B6-B8 bowls event. GETTYIMAGES

6th

Coming a long way: Jhandu Kumar once sold vegetables by day and trained by night. The 28-year-old opened India's account at the Commonwealth Games winning bronze in the men's heavyweight para powerlifting competition in Glasgow. PTI