

Challenging path: India will hope it retains its good habits when it comes up against traditional favourites Belgium, Germany, the Netherlands and Australia, sides that are tactically sound with highly skilled technical players who can prove to be difference-makers. AFP