Pakistan-West Indies Test series ends in a draw

1 Pakistan levelled the series with an eight-wicket win in the second Test

Pakistan and West Indies, currently placed eighth and ninth in the World Test Championship table respectively, played out a two-Test series. West Indies won the first Test in Tarouba by 90 runs, inspired by Justin Greaves' spell of 5/0 in five overs. Pakistan levelled the series with an eight-wicket win, led by Abdullah Shafique's unbeaten 160.
