

3rd

Sun shines on India: After a winless tour of the UK and Ireland, India found its spark in Zimbabwe, sweeping the T20I series 3-0 under Shreyas Iyer. At the heart of the turnaround was 15-year-old Vaibhav Sooryavanshi, who topped the series charts with a measured 81 off 49, becoming the first to score multiple 50-plus scores in men's internationals before turning 16. ^{AP}

4th

Jubilant scenes: India's 35-run win over Zimbabwe in the third T20I restored the side to the top of the T20I rankings, a spot it had briefly surrendered during the series defeat in England. ^{AP}