So near, yet so far: Delhi Capitals paid the price for David Miller turning down a run off the penultimate ball, slipping to a one-run defeat against Gujarat Titans. Needing two off the last ball, Miller swung at Prasidh Krishna but missed; a desperate single ended with Kuldeep Yadav run out by Jos Buttler at the striker's end. SHASHI SHEKHAR KASHYAP

Bolt from the blue: Lucknow Super Giants' 21-year-old Mukul Choudhary struck an unbeaten 54 off 27 balls to script a stunning three-wicket win. Choudhary bashed a 25-ball half-century, having come in at 104 for 5 in the 13th over, to help LSG chase down 182, leaving Kolkata Knight Riders winless after four matches. REUTERS
