

Sivaraj, Kamali crowned national champions

The grand finale of the Little Andaman Pro 2026, hosted by Andaman & Nicobar Tourism in association with the Surfing Federation of India, delivered a spectacular close to three days of high-intensity competition.

In a thrilling Surfing Men's Open final that kept spectators on edge, Sivaraj Babu emerged national champion with a score of 13.63, clinching victory by a razor-thin margin of just 0.30 points over Srikanth D (13.33). Kishore Kumar followed closely with 12.87, while Sanjay Selvamani posted 9.30 in a fiercely contested heat.

The Surfing Women's Open final saw a dominant performance from Kamali Moorthy, who not only secured the national title but also successfully defended her crown. Kamali delivered an outstanding score of 15.83, winning by a comfortable margin of 4.19 points over Sugar Shanti Banarse (11.64). Devi Ramanathan (7.84) and Riva Aurora (5.23) rounded off the standings.

In the SUP Sprint Men's final, Sekar Pachai continued his stellar run, clocking 1:22.32 to secure the top podium position. The SUP Sprint Women's final saw Vijayalakshmi Irulappan deliver a commanding performance, finishing first with a time of 1:40.35.
