196.32

Finn Allen's T20 strike rate since 2025

New Zealand's Finn Allen is set to take up the opening role for KKR this season. The wicketkeeper-batter has been in formidable form, highlighted by a 33-ball century against South Africa in the T20 World Cup semifinal at Eden Gardens.

Since 2025, Allen has struck at 196.32 in T20s, the second-best among openers with at least 1000 runs, behind Abhishek Sharma. His aggressive approach could help KKR set stronger platforms at the top.
