

Shail Mishra of Banasthali Public School, New Delhi, brought laurels to the school by winning a gold medal in the Indo-Nepal Youth Women International Tapeball Series 2025 (Under-19) against Nepal. She also secured gold medals at the National Softball Championship and was felicitated at Thyagraj Stadium on National Sports Day by the Chief Minister and Education Minister of Delhi. The school also excelled at the 68th National School Games under the School Games Federation of India, securing first place at the National Softball Championship conducted by the Delhi Softball Association. At the Delhi State School Games, its students earned podium finishes in athletics, yoga and softball, while karate champions shone at the Art of Matsubayashi RYU Karate Championship (ISKA) and primary students impressed at the Zonal Primary Athletic Meet.

1. At Alpine Convent School, Dhriti Thakran (above) led the list of achievers with her gold medal in the Under-37 kg category at the 16th Haryana Cup Taekwondo Championship in Ambala, along with representing the school at district-level competitions.

Dhriti Kastiya followed with a gold at the district level and a silver at the state level in skating, qualifying for nationals. Mahi continued the school's dominance in boxing with gold medals at the Asia Boxing Cup and the Khelo India Youth Games for two consecutive years, while Lakshay Rathi secured a bronze at the Under-19 World Boxing Championship. Ekamjot Kaur won gold in the 100m race at the 2nd Haryana Open Kids Athletics Championships, and Siddhi Jain impressed in karate with gold medals at the ISKF All India Open and Bharat Karate Championships 2024, along with a bronze at the 8th ADDI's Challenge Cup National Championship.

2. In the semifinal of the NDCA under-13 inter-school cricket tournament, The

Lawrence School defeated The Laidlaw Memorial School (Ketti) by 30 runs. Batting first, Lawrence posted 131 in 30 overs, with Ayaan Vashista top-scoring with 35 and K. Aashish Narayan adding 30, while C. Milan (3/13) and U. Abinav Nithin (3/27) were the standout bowlers for Laidlaw. In reply, Laidlaw were bowled out for 101 in 25.2 overs despite U. Abinav Nithin's unbeaten 30, as Ayaan Vashista returned to pick up 3 for 23 and seal his side's passage to the final.

3. Girideepam Bethany (Kottayam), Little Flower CHSS (Koratty), Providence GHSS (Kozhikode) and Sports Division Kannur will represent Kerala in the ACG Junior NBA 3x3 national finals in New Delhi. Girideepam Bethany and Little Flower CHSS will compete in the boys' section, while Providence GHSS and Sports Division Kannur will feature in the girls' section of the national championships. In the all-star competitions, Evan John, Madhav Krishna, Jake Micheal Elengical and Aadhi G. Nair will participate in the boys' section, while Jovina Tinu, Diya