Dhumketu XI edged Durbar XI by seven runs at the Shere Bangla National Stadium in Mirpur to lift the Odommo Bangladesh T20 Cup, bringing the three-team tournament to a close after it began on February 5. Organised by the Bangladesh Cricket Board, the competition featured the country's leading cricketers who missed the T20 World Cup after the government barred participation in India. Litton Das (above), Najmul Hossain Shanto and Akbar Ali captained Dhumketu XI, Durbar XI and Duronto XI, respectively, in a single round-robin format.

Sri Lanka Women took an unassailable 2-0 lead in the three-match series with another narrow win over West Indies at St George's. The second ODI mirrored the first: West Indies chased a sub-250 total, Jannillea Glasgow struck a fifty from No.7, and Sri Lanka edged it again. After falling 10 runs short of 241 in the opener, the host this time bowled Sri Lanka out for 208. The visitor had been well placed at 166 for 4 in the 36th over, but a collapse followed despite a fighting fifty from Vishmi Gunaratne (above). In the end, she had done enough to ensure a 14-run win.

Bangladesh has announced the central contracts for its men's side for the 2026 season, covering the period from January 1, 2026, to December 31, 2026. The number of players under the BCB contract has risen from 22 in 2025 to 28 in the latest list. Pacer Taskin Ahmed (above), who was the only player in the A+ category last year, has dropped to Grade A. Meanwhile, Mushfiquur Rahim has dropped to Grade B since he retired from ODIs in March last year.

All-rounder Amelia Kerr has been appointed New Zealand captain for all formats, taking over from Sophie Devine, who retired from ODIs following the 2025 World Cup and gave up the T20I captaincy. Kerr's first assignment is a home ODI and T20I series against Zimbabwe. Kerr, 25, has played 84 ODIs and 88 T20Is since making her debut in 2016. She has 2304 ODI runs at an average of 41.14 and 106 wickets at an average of 30.61. In T20Is, she's scored 1453 runs at a strike rate of 109.74 and 95 wickets with an economy rate of 6.09. Kerr captained Wellington Blaze to back-to-back Super Smash titles in 2023-24 and 2024-25.
