

Complete command: With five gold, five silver and six bronze medals, India stamped its authority across every Olympic-discipline event at the continental meet held from February 2 to 14. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

Indian shooters hit close to the mark

While India finished with a record haul at the Asian Shooting Championships, the tournament's real purpose might be in providing shooters a chance to check boxes, adapt to new rules and build confidence in a crucial season.