

Patil finished second in the men's 50m in the three positions qualification with 591, while Vidarsa Kochalumkal led the women's event with 590.

Among the juniors, Himanshu and Shambhavi Kshirsagar stood out in the 10m rifle. Himanshu's 633.9 in qualification surpassed every senior competitor, while Shambhavi shot 253.7 in the junior women's final, higher than Elavenil's 252 in the senior gold-medal round.

Even without standing on the senior podium, such scores strengthen their case for selection in an increasingly competitive Indian team. "These performances matter," says rifle high-performance coach Manoj Kumar. "It all adds to their

Stand-out performer: Elavenil Valarivan has, over the years, grown into one of the sport's most reliable big stage performers, and she once again carved her name into the spotlight in her event at the Dr. Karni Singh Shooting Range. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT rankings and average score, on the basis of which India's team for the Asian Games will be picked," he says.

While the Asian Championships were only the first stop in a long season, shooters like Elavenil felt it was important to start strongly. "The season is going to be very competitive. It's good to get off to a good start. But now it's about building on this result," she says.

India at the Asian Championships

OVERALL MEDAL TALLY (OLYMPIC EVENTS)

Gold: 5
Silver: 5
Bronze: 6
Total: 16 medals

RIFLE EVENTS

10m Air Rifle – Men

Gold: Rudrankksh Patil
Silver: Arjun Babuta

50m Rifle 3 Positions – Men

Gold: Aishwary Tomar
Silver: Niraj Kumar
Bronze: Akhil Sheoran

10m Air Rifle – Women

Gold: Elavenil Valarivan
Bronze: Meghana Sajjanar

50m Rifle 3 Positions – Women

Silver: Aakriti Dahiya
Bronze: Anjum Moudgil

10m Air Rifle – Mixed Team

Gold: Arjun Babuta / Elavenil Valarivan

PISTOL EVENTS

10m Air Pistol – Men

Bronze: Samrat Rana

25m Rapid Fire Pistol – Men

Bronze: Anish Bhanwala

10m Air Pistol – Women

Gold: Esha Singh

25m Pistol – Women

Silver: Manu Bhaker
Bronze: Esha Singh

10m Air Pistol – Mixed Team

Silver: Suruchi Singh/ Samrat Rana