

racist slur at the Brazilian winger. Vinicius immediately alerted the referee, prompting the official to activate the anti-racism protocol and pause the game for nearly 10 minutes.

Adding to the chaos, Benfica boss Jose Mourinho was given marching orders late in the game and will miss the second leg at Santiago Bernabeu.

After the match, he questioned why such incidents keep happening with only Vinicius and suggested he should celebrate in a “respectful way.” Both Benfica and Prestianni have denied the allegations, while UEFA has opened an investigation.

Meanwhile, Bodo/Glimt produced another upset, shocking Inter Milan 3-1 after earlier wins over Atletico Madrid and Manchester City, while Club Brugge held Atletico to a 3-3 draw in Belgium.

Borussia Dortmund and Bayer Leverkusen secured 2-0 wins over Atalanta and Olympiacos, respectively, while Anthony Gordon scored four as Newcastle United thrashed Qarabag FK 6-1.

Seven goals were scored in the Galatasaray-Juventus clash, with the Turkish side securing a 5-2 win. Teun Koopmeiners scored twice to give the Italian giant a 2-1 advantage before Noa Lang led Galatasaray’s comeback with two goals.

PSG rallied from two goals down to beat AS Monaco 3-2, thanks to substitute Desire Doue’s (right) brace.

However, the defending champion will be concerned after Ballon d’Or winner Ousmane Dembele played just 27 minutes before being substituted due to injury.

(All results updated as of February 22)

Boiling point: Vinicius Junior (left) and Gianluca Prestianni (red) in a heated exchange during the Champions League clash between Real Madrid and Benfica. AFP

