

» FROM THE
WORLD OF FOOTBALL

Contrast in fortunes: Italian players console each other after their shocking defeat to Bosnia and Herzegovina, a result that saw the four-time champion miss the FIFA World Cup for a third consecutive edition. Facing page: A successful shootout win over Denmark sent the Czech Republic to its first World Cup since 2006. PICS: GETTY IMAGES

Agony and euphoria

The Italian national football team failed to qualify for a third successive FIFA World Cup while Sweden, Czech Republic and others booked their spots.