

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« I'm ready for whoever, as long as these guys are in the heavyweight division, I am here. You can call me Mr. Clean, because I want to clean up the whole division. The division is nothing without Deontay Wilder.» – Deontay Wilder calling out Anthony Joshua for a long-awaited match-up between the former heavyweight champions »

« I miss clay every time that the clay season is over. It's been [a] long [time] since Roland Garros that I just haven't touched clay.» – Carlos Alcaraz »

67m, 44s

American Grandmaster Hikaru Nakamura spent over one hour making a move during a FIDE Candidates 2026 match against Uzbekistan's Javokhir Sindarov in Cyprus. Nakamura utilised 67 minutes, 44 seconds to make his 13th move of the game. As per Chess.com, only one player has previously used up more time for a move in Candidates history — Russian GM Alexander Grischuk, who took 72 minutes to make a move against China's Wang Hao in 2021.

139-136

Teenage quadruple amputee archer Payal Nag produced a stunning upset to defeat World No. 1 and decorated compatriot Sheetal Devi to clinch gold, headlining India's dominant show at the World Archery Para Series in Bangkok. The 18-year-old rising star edged a tense compound women's final 139-136, capping a memorable campaign as India finished atop the standings with an impressive seven gold medals. The contingent ended with a total of 13 medals, including three silver and three bronze.

DOMINANT SHOW

Chinese paddlers dominated the top prizes at the ITTF World Cup 2026 in Macau. Sun Yingsha (right in pic) defeated Wang Manyu 4-1 (11-9, 11-8, 13-11, 8-11, 11-7) in the women's singles final to claim a third consecutive World Cup title. In doing so, she joined Fan Zhendong as the only players in World Cup history to win three successive singles crowns. In the men's singles final, Wang Chuqin (left in pic) edged Sora Matsushima 4-3 (9-11, 18-16, 11-8, 11-13, 8-11, 11-4, 11-8) to claim his maiden World Cup title. ITTF MEDIA