

FINE MARGINS

From boundary blitzes to tactical gambles, these are the hits and misses that defined this T20 World Cup.

Numbers behind the noise

1. The title-winning Indian team led the boundary-hitting charts, with 106 maximums — 30 more than the next best, West Indies — and 147 fours, 30 in excess of fellow finalist New Zealand.
2. Spinners bowled a combined 186.2 overs during PowerPlay — the most ever in a single edition — picking up 56 wickets at an economy rate of 8.23.
3. The tournament logged 5,383 singles, twos and threes — the most registered in a single edition.
4. This edition witnessed the most dropped catches in a single edition of the tournament — 126.
