Leading from the front: Harry Brook produced a captain's knock under pressure, smashing a brilliant century to steer England into the semifinals of the ICC Men's T20 World Cup with a tense two-wicket win over Pakistan in Pallekele. Promoting himself to No. 3 after Phil Salt fell first ball, Brook struck a composed 100 while chasing 165. AP

Caught in a spin: Co-host Sri Lanka was knocked out of T20 World Cup after succumbing to a 61-run defeat to New Zealand in Colombo. Chasing 169, Rachin Ravindra had both Kusal Mendis (in pic) and Pavan Rathnayake stumped in the ninth over to leave Sri Lanka reeling at 29 for 4. There was no coming back from there. AP
