

4th

Lone warrior: Tim Seifert whacked 52 from 26 balls but around him, New Zealand kept losing regular wickets in pursuit of what had increasingly started to look like a lost cause.

5th

Eyes on the ball: Ishan Kishan pulled off a superb diving catch at deep backward square leg to dismiss Rachin Ravindra, sprinting forward and holding on even after the ball popped out on impact with the ground, handing Jasprit Bumrah an early breakthrough.

6th

You miss, I hit: In his second over, Axar Patel produced a beauty, an arm ball that beat Glenn Phillips all ends up and shattered the stumps, leaving the batter rooted to the crease as the spinner all but sealed New Zealand's fate.