

stood out. He worked with fast bowler Yudhvir Singh and helped him develop an impactful outswinger. Left-arm medium-pacer Sunil Kumar had a habit of angling the ball and losing out on swing. "He comes from a village near Akhnoor, where he did not even have a proper pitch to bowl on. He prepared a cemented surface and took lessons from me over video. I had to teach him the basics of swing bowling and release," said Krishnakumar.

Krishnakumar lauded the efforts of the bowlers and fielding coach Dishant Yagnik. "Through the season, we dropped only five catches. Hats off to Dishant for his hard work."

In the opinion of his longtime friend and former India batter Gursharan Singh, Krishnakumar's support was critical to J&K's success. "He is excellent at training newcomers. He has a fantastic ability to detect and correct mistakes. He taught the bowlers to take wickets, and that is how J&K won the Ranji Trophy," stressed Gursharan, a qualified BCCI coach.
