Sri Lanka has appointed Gary Kirsten as the head coach of its national men's team on a two-year contract, beginning April 15, 2026. Kirsten brings with him one of the most respected coaching resumes in modern cricket. He guided India to its iconic triumph at the 2011 ICC Cricket World Cup and later coached South Africa from 2011 to 2013, a period during which the Proteas rose to the No. 1 spot in the ICC rankings across formats. Most recently, Kirsten served as a consultant with Namibia at the ICC Men's T20 World Cup 2026.

Sri Lanka women's cricket team sealed its maiden T20I series win over West Indies with a commanding nine-wicket victory in Grenada. Having gone 1-0 down in the series after the opening match was washed out, the host was playing only to draw the series. However, another underwhelming batting performance ensured Sri Lanka completed its first bilateral series win against West Indies in seven attempts.
