

3rd

Stamping authority: Phoebe Litchfield brushed aside fitness concerns with a batting masterclass against South Africa's vaunted pace attack, setting up a commanding 65-run victory. Georgia Wareham then starred with both bat and ball to complete the job, underlining the depth of Australia's all-round strength in the format.

GETTY IMAGES

4th

Emotional knock: Shemaine Campbelle was reduced to tears after guiding the West Indies to a seven-wicket win over defending champion New Zealand. Her unbeaten half-century, the first of her T20I career, ended a 154-match wait and proved decisive in a memorable victory.

GETTY IMAGES