

104 } The number of instances of batters being dismissed exactly on a score of 100 in Tests. K. L. Rahul, in the New Chandigarh Test, became the latest to be dismissed at this score, which incidentally, was the third such instance in his Test career. This makes him only the third batter in Tests to be dismissed thus on three or more occasions. He joins two other openers — England's Len Hutton and Australia's Graeme Wood.

11 } The number of Indians to aggregate 1000 or more runs as a Test captain. Shubman Gill in the Chandigarh Test is the latest to do so during his knock of 126. He also became the second-quickest Indian captain to reach this milestone in fewest innings (15), after Sunil Gavaskar, who did it in 14 innings. However, Gill is the quickest to do it in fewest Test matches (9). Gill's three-figure score in New Chandigarh was his sixth in 15 innings while leading the Test side. The two tables have all the details.

11 } The number of Test nations with at least one batter to reach 1000 career Test runs. Afghanistan became the latest to join this list in the New Chandigarh Test match, with Rahmat Shah becoming the first Afghanistan batter to cross 1000 Test runs during his fighting knock of 60 against India on 7 June 2026. The table below lists all the batters who were the first to achieve this milestone for each Test-playing nation.

Note: Ireland is now the only Test side without a batter with 1000+ runs. Lorcan Tucker (753 runs) is their highest run-getter

15 } The number of matches played by India against Afghanistan across all formats without facing a defeat. After India's comprehensive Test victory in New Chandigarh, it has defeated Afghanistan on 13 occasions, including a win via a super over while the other matches ended in a tie and a no result.
