

2

The Lanka Premier League is set to return for the first time since 2024, with the 2026 edition beginning on July 17 with a rematch of the 2024 final between defending champion Jaffna and runner-up Galle. The tournament opener will be played under lights at the SSC in Colombo, a venue that hosted its maiden T20I earlier this year during the T20 World Cup. The match is scheduled to begin at 7:30 pm, with an official opening ceremony set to precede the fixture and launch the 2026 season. The tournament will run from July 17 to August 8.

3

Fatima Sana lit up Karachi with the fastest half-century in women's T20Is as Pakistan thrashed Zimbabwe by 133 runs in the third and final match to complete a 3-0 series sweep. Batting at No. 6, Fatima smashed an unbeaten 62 off just 19 balls, hammering 10 fours and two sixes, and raced to a record-breaking fifty in only 15 deliveries. Her explosive knock powered Pakistan to 223 for 4, the second-highest total in its women's T20I history. Pakistan won the first and second T20Is by 153 and 67 runs, respectively.

4

The ICC has suspended funding to Cricket Canada over governance-related issues. The suspension comes during a difficult period for Cricket Canada, which has been embroiled in several administrative and integrity-related controversies over the past year. Canada's match against New Zealand during the recent ICC Men's T20 World Cup is currently under investigation by the ICC's Anti-Corruption Unit (ACU).

5

Former Australia and Queensland wicketkeeper John Maclean has died at the age of 80 following a lengthy illness. Maclean played four Tests and two ODIs for Australia during the 1978-79 home Ashes series, a period when several of the country's leading players, including first-choice wicketkeeper Rod Marsh, were barred from Test selection due to their involvement in World Series Cricket. He was later awarded an MBE in the 1980 Queen's Birthday Honours for his services to cricket.

6

Rugeley second XI batter Scott Gretton lit up a South Staffordshire County League victory away at Springvale with an incredible 12 sixes in two overs. The staggering feat came in his haul of 150 in the 156-run victory on the road in Springvale. It is its first occurrence in the league's 53-year history and comes hot on the heels of another incredible league record just three weeks earlier when Myles Davis claimed a double hat-trick for Penkridge in a Premier Division clash against Pelsall.