

1990

ITALY

6th

Milla magic: Cameroon's Roger Milla evades Colombian goalkeeper Jose Higuita on his way to scoring in a group-stage match. The World Cup found its first African superstar in Milla, whose four goals in Italy propelled his side into the quarterfinals. Cameroon stunned defending champion Argentina in the opening game before topping the group.

AFP

7th

Split allegiances: Maradona (left) duels with Italy skipper Giuseppe Bergomi in the semifinal in Naples, where he played club football for Napoli. Ahead of the tournament, the Argentinian legend had guided Napoli to its second Serie A title, earning him cult status in the city. He even urged Naples to turn against Italy and support their 'beloved Diego'. In the end, Maradona and Argentina broke Italian hearts via a penalty shootout. THE HINDU PHOTO LIBRARY

8th

Score settled: In its final tournament before reunification, West Germany exacted revenge on Argentina in a cagey final, where Andreas Brehme (left) converted from the spot in the 85th minute to secure the nation's third title. AFP