

2014

BRAZIL

22nd

Flying Dutchman: Netherlands forward Robin van Persie scored a stunning flying header over goalkeeper Iker Casillas as the Dutch handed defending champion Spain a crushing 5-1 defeat. Spain was eventually eliminated in the group stage. AP

23rd

Ultimate humiliation: In a highly anticipated semifinal, Germany dismantled host Brazil 7-1 in one of the greatest shocks in World Cup history. Fans and Brazilian players at Belo Horizonte's Mineirao Stadium were left in tears, while Miroslav Klose (extreme right) became the tournament's all-time leading scorer with his 16th World Cup goal. AFP

24th

German masterclass: A unified Germany reigned supreme at the World Cup for the first time when substitute Mario Goetze (left) volleyed home the winner in extra time against Argentina at Rio de Janeiro's Maracana Stadium. AP