

28th

Showstopper: This World Cup final will be remembered as an all-time classic. With the match tied at 3-3 deep into extra time, France's Randal Kolo Muani (left) found himself through on goal, only for Argentina goalkeeper Emiliano Martinez to produce a stunning save. Martinez later denied two penalties in the shootout to guide Argentina to a memorable win. GETTY IMAGES

29th

A legend becomes champion: After making his World Cup debut as a teenager in 2006, Lionel Messi (centre) had to wait 16 years to finally lift the trophy with Argentina. With seven goals and three assists, Messi was also named Player of the Tournament. AP