

« He absorbs a lot of information and he wants to be the best. He's eager and that's really good to see, and it's really fun to see that youthful spirit again. — Olympic champion Noah Lyles on teen sensation Gout Gout »

« I have read reports that link me to possible candidacies for the presidency of Real Madrid. I would like to clarify that these reports are not true. — Rafael Nadal, former World No. 1 tennis player and lifelong Real Madrid fan, rubbing rumours linking him to the Spanish club's presidential elections »

22

Wu Yize became the second-youngest winner in Snooker World Championship history after the 22-year-old edged Britain's Shaun Murphy 18-17 in a gripping final decided in the last frame. Wu is now second only to Stephen Hendry, who won his maiden world title at the age of 21 in 1990. The triumph also made Wu just the second Chinese player to become world champion, following compatriot Zhao Xintong's landmark victory at the Crucible last year.

27

Oklahoma City Thunder star Shai Gilgeous-Alexander was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player for a second straight season. Canadian star Gilgeous-Alexander, 27, joins an elite club of only 14 NBA players who have won back-to-back MVP honours. He beat fellow finalists Nikola Jokic of the Denver Nuggets and Victor Wembanyama of the San Antonio Spurs. The now-two-time MVP finished with 83 first-place votes compared to 10 for Jokic and five for Wembanyama.

CELEBRATION TIME

Jannik Sinner won the Italian Open after beating Casper Ruud 6-4, 6-4 in the men's singles final to claim a record-extending sixth consecutive Masters 1000 tournament victory. World number one Sinner has now completed the 'Golden Masters' by winning all of the ATP's top-ranked events after becoming the first Italian champion at the Foro Italico since Adriano Panatta 50 years ago. Only Novak Djokovic had previously won all nine Masters 1000 events. Meanwhile, Ukraine's Elina Svitolina signalled her French Open ambitions by battling past World No. 4 Coco Gauff 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-2 in the women's singles final. AP

