Special brace: Captain Kylian Mbappe scored twice in France's 3-1 win over Senegal in their Group I opener in New Jersey, making him his nation's all-time leading goalscorer (14 goals) in World Cups and international football (58 goals). AFP

Back with a bang: Erling Haaland bagged a brace as Norway marked its return to the World Cup after 28 years in style with a 4-1 victory in Boston over Iraq, which hadn't played at the biggest stage since 1986. REUTERS

Old is gold: Argentine captain Lionel Messi (38 years 357 days) became the oldest player to score a World Cup hat-trick as the South American nation began its title defence with a 3-0 triumph over Algeria in Kansas City. REUTERS
