

Silver lining: While Uzbekistan lost 3-1 to Colombia on its World Cup debut in Mexico City, the Asian nation did have something to celebrate as Abbosbek Fayzullaev (extreme left) scored its maiden World Cup goal in the 60th minute. AP

Hanging on: South Africa earned a valuable point against Czechia to keep its knockout qualification hopes alive as Teboho Mokoena scored from the spot late in the match in Atlanta. REUTERS

Manzambi magic: After the goalless first 73 minutes against Bosnia and Herzegovina, Switzerland finally came to party in Los Angeles for a 4-1 win as Johan Manzambi (20 years 247 days) became the youngest-ever substitute to score multiple goals in a World Cup game. AP

Rampage: Canada notched up its maiden World Cup win as the co-host thrashed Qatar 6-0 in Vancouver with Jonathan David becoming the first North American in 96 years to score a hat-trick in the tournament. REUTERS
