

Costly error: Mexico booked its spot in the knockouts with a 1-0 victory over South Korea in Guadalajara after goalkeeper Kim Seung-gyu made a costly error when he failed to gather a cross after colliding with a teammate, allowing Luis Romo to volley into an unguarded net. AFP

Smooth sailing: Co-host USA advanced to the Round of 32 with a game to spare after comfortably beating Australia 2-0 in Seattle, featuring a header from Alex Freeman which was initially ruled out for offside but awarded following a VAR review. AFP

Wasting no time: Morocco scored against Scotland in Boston in just 70 seconds courtesy a powerful strike from Ismael Saibari from a narrow angle and the African nation held on to the lead for the rest of the game. AFP
