

One for the ages: Iranian goalkeeper Alireza Beiranvand came up with an astonishing save in a gritty goalless draw against Belgium in Los Angeles. AFP

One stunner after another: Cape Verde followed its impressive goalless draw against Spain with a 2-2 thriller against Uruguay in Miami after Helio Varela (top) scored the equaliser just 135 seconds after coming on as a substitute. AFP

The Egyptian King: Skipper Mohamed Salah (right) scored a goal and also provided the game-sealing assist as Egypt came from behind to beat New Zealand 3-1 in Vancouver, earning its maiden World Cup victory. AFP

In a league of his own: Lionel Messi (centre) took his tally of World Cup goals to 18, more than any man or woman, with a brace as Argentina defeated Austria 2-0 in Dallas. REUTERS
