

In a flash: Ruben Vargas shocked the home crowd in Vancouver as he struck 39 seconds into the second half, a match Switzerland won 2-1 against Canada to top its group. AP

From Bosnia to America: Ermin Mahmic took his shirt off after scoring the third goal as Bosnia and Herzegovina won its final group-stage game 3-1 against Qatar in Seattle to finish amongst the eight best third-placed teams, setting up a Round of 32 clash with the USA. REUTERS

Look who's back: Neymar Jr. (right) came on as a late substitute, his first match in Brazilian colours in almost three years after injury struggles, as the side rode on Vinicius Junior's (left) brace and a Matheus Cunha goal to beat Scotland 3-0 in Miami and top the group. REUTERS
