

Win big, change fortunes: After losses to France and Norway, Senegal secured a massive 5-0 victory over Iraq in Toronto with Pape Gueye bagging a brace to qualify for the Round of 32 as one of the eight best third-placed sides. AFP

Dream on: Cape Verde's fairytale debut campaign added another glorious chapter as a goalless draw against Saudi Arabia in Houston made it the smallest nation ever to qualify for the World Cup knockouts. AFP

Miserable Muslera: Uruguay's 40-year-old goalkeeper Fernando Muslera failed to keep out a fairly routine shot from Spain's Alex Baena and was subbed off before the second half as a 1-0 loss in Guadalajara resulted in the South American side's elimination in the group stage. REUTERS

Heartbreak: For a few moments, Shohreh Khalilzadeh had become the national hero for Iran after scoring what seemed to be a late winner against Egypt in Seattle which would have secured its spot in the Round of 32, only for VAR to rule it out for being marginally offside. REUTERS
