

» PHOTOLINE WOMEN'S T20 WORLD CUP

First points: Sri Lanka's Nilakshi de Silva (Jersey No. 27) celebrates her side's five-wicket win against New Zealand at The Rose Bowl. Silva remained unbeaten on 54 as Kaushani Nuthyangana smacked the winning four to hack down a 151-run target with two balls to spare. GETTYIMAGES

Easy pickings: England's Amy Jones stumps Ireland's Rebecca Stokell off the bowling of Sophie Ecclestone. The host notched up its second consecutive victory after beating Ireland by four wickets, chasing down 119 in 17.3 overs at The Rose Bowl. REUTERS

Howzat!: Australia's Ellyse Perry appeals for the dismissal of Bangladesh's Shorna Akter, who departed for a three-ball duck. The six-time champion restricted the Tigresses to a paltry 77 before chasing down the target in 9.3 overs with nine wickets to spare at Headingley. AFP

Swept away: India vice-captain Smriti Mandhana led the way with a Player of the Match-winning 47-ball 74 to power her side to 209, after which N. Shree Charani claimed four wickets to help bundle out the Netherlands for 114 in 17.3 overs at Headingley. GETTYIMAGES