

Back on track: After losing to Australia in its campaign opener, South Africa registered its first win of the tournament against Pakistan at Edgbaston in Birmingham. Annerie Dercksen (pictured) starred for the Proteas with the bat, scoring a 35-ball 52 to help them record a two-wicket win. GETTY IMAGES

2 in 2: Ailsa Slater of Scotland (pictured) is clean bowled by West Indies' Aaliyah Alleyne, who went on to remove Kirstie Gordon off the very next ball in the 19th over. The double strike proved pivotal in the Windies' seven-run win over Scotland at Headingley. AP

Kaptain Kerr: New Zealand skipper Amelia Kerr scored a steady 30 off 24 balls as wickets fell at the other end, before taking two wickets in an over to halt Ireland's momentum. The Kiwis went on to seal a narrow four-run win at The Rose Bowl. GETTY IMAGES

Mooney's worth: It was Australia's turn to play debutant Netherlands, and the Aussies blew the Dutch away with a 98-run win. Wicketkeeper batter Beth Mooney amassed 74 in 42 as Australia posted 219 at The Rose Bowl. The Dutch did well to just lose three wickets till the end. AP