

Spinners take flight: Bangladesh's Nahida Akter celebrates the dismissal of Pakistan skipper Fatima Sana, one of her three wickets in the match at The Rose Bowl. Fellow left-arm spinner Sanjida Akter Meghla also bagged three scalps as the Tigresses defended 123 to win by 23 runs. AP

Slam Dunk: England batter Sophia Dunkley notched up her maiden T20 World Cup half-century against Scotland at Headingley as the hosts posted another 200-plus total. England went on to register a comfortable 38-run win.

REUTERS

Caught in the act: West Indies captain Hayley Matthews backtracks to take a spectacular catch and dismiss Sri Lanka opener Vishmi Gunaratne off the fifth ball of the innings. The Lankans were restricted to just 98 at the Bristol County Ground, a total that the Windies chased down with five wickets and 23 balls to spare.

GETTY IMAGES

India 'Kapp'itulates: The Women in Blue were condemned to their first loss of the campaign after South Africa veteran Marizanne Kapp's all-round brilliance (2/27 & 81*) gave the Proteas a six-wicket win at Old Trafford. GETTY IMAGES