Leading from the front: Shubman Gill struck an unbeaten 84 off 66 balls as India cruised to a seven-wicket win over Afghanistan in a rain-shortened ODI in Dharamsala. After a four-hour rain delay reduced the match to 25 overs a side, India chased down 194 with 13 balls to spare. Gill's knock, featuring 11 fours and two sixes, and K.L. Rahul's unbeaten 39 off 19 sealed a comfortable victory. SHIV KUMAR PUSHPAKAR
