

14th

Off to a flying start: Virat Kohli (75 not out off 42) and Venkatesh Iyer (32 off 16) wasted little time in exposing the flaws in Gujarat Titans' approach. The duo came out with clear intent, taking the attack to Mohammed Siraj and Kagiso Rabada and racing RCB to 70 for two in the PowerPlay. K. R. DEEPAK

15th

King's courtyard: As Royal Challengers Bengaluru etched its name into IPL history by becoming only the third side to retain the title, Virat Kohli added another milestone of his own. The former skipper's Player-of-the-Match honour was his 22nd in the IPL, the most by any Indian, underlining his enduring influence on the league. K. R. DEEPAK