

1

The ICC has suspended Cricket Canada with immediate effect over what it termed "serious breaches" of its membership obligations, one of several major decisions taken at the Board meetings in Ahmedabad. The Board also approved a recommendation to trial the use of a pink ball in traditional Test matches, subject to the agreement of both teams, when poor light is anticipated. Among the other key outcomes of the meetings was the Board's approval of a recommendation to establish a Global Qualifier for ICC Men's T20 World Cups.

2

Nepal opener Kushal Bhurtel became only the sixth batter in T20I history to hit six sixes in an over during his side's Asian Games Qualifier opener against China. The right-hander took apart left-arm spinner Chen Zhuo Yue in the ninth over at the Singapore National Cricket Ground, becoming the second Nepali after Dipendra Singh Airee to achieve the feat. Bhurtel then blazed 129 off just 43 balls as Nepal racked up 313/2 in 20 overs before sealing a commanding 221-run victory.

3

Ruturaj Gaikwad has been named as Riyan Parag's replacement in the India A squad for the upcoming tri-series in Sri Lanka. Parag, who was also appointed vice-captain, has been ruled out with a hamstring injury and will undergo rehabilitation at the Centre of Excellence in Bengaluru. The tri-series, featuring the A teams of Sri Lanka, India and Afghanistan, begins on June 9. Each side will face the others twice before the final on June 21, with all matches set to be played at the Rangiri Dambulla International Stadium

4

Multiple records tumbled as Ireland secured its first win of the women's T20I tri-series, chasing down Pakistan's 176/6 with a seven-wicket victory in Dublin. Rebecca Stokell (pic above) anchored the chase with an unbeaten 60. The successful pursuit of 177, completed with five balls to spare, was Ireland's highest-ever run chase in women's T20Is in a tournament that also features West Indies.