

At just 18, Spain's newest sensation, Lamine Yamal, is preparing for his first FIFA World Cup. Unfazed by comparisons, expectations, or labels, he speaks about dreams fulfilled, staying grounded, and chasing glory with a young, fearless Spanish side.

FIFA World Cup debut at 18!
How does that feel?

Obviously special! Moreover, we will be going to the World Cup as the reigning European champions. And we have so many young players loving to play exciting football. As a kid playing football, the World Cup has always been a dream. I had closely followed the last two editions where Spain played. Therefore, it will be my third World Cup and I am a part of it - it seems unbelievable!
